

BRMS OPENS NEW OFFICE IN SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA

SAN DIEGO, CA, April 2006 — Benefit & Risk Management Services (BRMS), a leading benefit administration and healthcare risk management TPA, is opening a new office in San Diego to expand business relationships in Southern California.

Managing the San Diego office, BRMS is proud to announce the addition of Elizabeth (Liz) Frey as Account Executive in charge of strategic level management of client accounts, cultivating and nurturing current business relationships and building new business in Southern California.

Formerly Senior Account Manager for VIIA Insurance Services, in San Diego, Liz will proactively anticipate future insurance needs and/or policy changes, customer needs and service issues while educating customers on industry and price trends.

“As BRMS continues to grow and expand, we are ensuring we stay focused on servicing our southern California clientele. Liz will be a local contact based in San Diego who will be readily available to them to analyze, plan and build their employee benefits administration systems while building trusted and valued relationships with new clientele,” states BRMS President, Scott Reid.

With a Bachelor of Arts, Political Science from the University of Missouri at Columbia and over thirteen years working with employee benefit brokerages and carriers, Liz is an industry expert who will assist clientele with everything from plan creation to online administration with our exclusive Virtual Benefits Administration System (Vbas[®]).
